AN APPEAL FOR DESTITUTE AUSTRIANS. TUNDS NEEDED TO ALLAY SOME OF THE MISERY

CAUSED BY GREAT FLOODS. Dr. Anton ven Pahtschek, the Austro-Hungarian

Consul in New York, has issued an appeal, which reads in part as follows:

in part as follows:

Great distress has befallen the countries of Austria, especially Belief, a and Vorathery, where many miles of fettile lands nere tutally devastated by a dreadful mundation, the crop, laboriously harvested, catried away, hundred of dwelling pines demolished, and a large portion of the population left in need and misery.

The most fricultial damage was caused by the floods in the old, venerally capital of Prague. The low-sited parts of the city, mostly inhabited by poor people, and so far all neglect disc far as the safe-keeping of the strand is concerned, are totally inundated, non-rous houses having fallen into runs, and none than twenty-five thousand persons are desirated of their chattels, small as those evening have been. Not less sail reports have reached us from the other parts of the Modlavian Valley, the Lower Eibe flat lands, from Verailberg and numerous other districts of the Austro-

The damage, as far as it can at present be accounted for, is estimated at many millions. An extensive work of assistance was, of course, begun at once, and the Government leads this action with a large sum. This, however, does not even suffice for the first help, inasmuch as through the calamity mostly poor people, such as the small cottager and the small tradesman, who even under normal conditions cam but little, have come to crief.

For these reasons I ask all who interest themselves in the sad fate of lonemia and the other Austrian countries, to join this appeal by assisting the needy at home with kind gifts. Even the smallest gift is welcome, if but given willingly and quickly.

For all cash and other contributions receipt through the press will be given, and all these contributions will be re-The damage, as far as it can at present be accounted for, press will be given, and all these contributions will be re-mitted at once to the respective seats of the Government by the Austro-Hungarian Consulate General.

HONORING A SOCIALIST LEADER.

A Socialistic denonstration in honor of John Swinton, the well-known writer, was held in Cooper Union on Saturday night, and was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Swinton. August Delabar, the candidate for Mayor on the Socialistic ticket, introduced Legien Sanlel as the the Socialistic treket, introduced Lecter Saniel as the chairman of the meeting. Mr. Saniel snoke briefly on the work and character of Mr. Swinton, and then introduced him to the audience, which nearly filled the hall. Mr. Swinton spoke at length upon the progress of the Socialist movement in this country, giving as an instance the story that when he ran for Mayor on the Socialist ticket he received eachly-three votes, yet when he ran on the sane ticket for Congress some years later he received 3,000 votes. Other speakers were Alexander-Jonas and Professor Daniel De Leon.

Popular Prejudice is Sometimes Right.

EVERYONE knows the punmonia, and the bitter, "puckery" taste of alum. A baking powder containing alum or ammonia would be quickly condemned if it were known that these adulterants were used. The best way is to buy a baking powder so pure and wholesome that the manufacturers are willing to state all that enters into its composition.

All the ingredients of Cleveland's Superior Baking Powder have been, for years, published on every label.

THE CITY OF ROME AGROUND.

BELIEF THAT THE POINT HAD BEEN USED FOR A DUMPING PLACE-NO DAMAGE DONE.

The steamer City of Rome, of the Anchor Line, went ashere vesterday morning at 10 50 o'clock hear Robbins Reef Light, on the edge of the channel off Liny Ridge and between Buoys Nos. 18 and 20. The charts show at this point twenty five feet of water at low tide. As the bettom proved to be mad, the great lines grounded easily and with a hardly perceptible shock Four hours and a half later the ristor tide floated her off without any serious damage having been done. During this bong wait a large number of the saloot passengers were taken ashore on the burge William H. Vanderbilt.

Captain Young said to a Tribune reporter ve tenlay afternoon that the accident occurred soon after the steamer left Quarantine. When she was just abreas Robbins Reef light a small schooner, whose name he did not know, tacked so as to pass under the steamer's did not know, tached so as to pass under the steamer's bows. The pilot ordered the helir put to port and a minute or two later she efelt' gound, but so softly that it was not known to the adjority of the passengers that anything had gone wrong mill she came to a standstill. "According to the charts," he added, there should be plenty of water at this point, as it is within the line of the channel. The only way I can explain the existence of a hor there is that they have been dumping there recently. This would also account for the soft hortom. I do not believe any damage was done to the steamer, but, of course, a thorough examination will be made."
